

	BOARD CHARTER	www.afrimat.co.za
		F2023

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Recommendations for and principles of good corporate governance are set out in the King Report on Governance for South Africa, 2016 (“King IV”), read together with the King Code of Governance for South Africa, 2016 (“the Code”).
- 1.2 The board of directors of Afrimat Limited (“Board”) (“Afrimat” or “Company”) fully subscribes to the principles of good corporate governance where attainable in our situation and regards these as fundamentally important to the business success and sustainability of the Company.
- 1.3 The Board therefore approved this Board Charter (“Charter”), the provisions of which will at all times be subject to the provisions of the Companies Act No.71 of 2008 (“The Companies Act”), the Company’s Memorandum of Incorporation (“MOI”), the JSE Listings Requirements and any other applicable law or regulatory provision.

2. PURPOSE OF THE BOARD

- 2.1 The purpose of the Charter is to regulate the parameters within which the Board will operate and to ensure the application of the principles of good corporate governance in all dealings by, in respect and on behalf of, the Company and furthermore to set out the roles and responsibilities of the Board and individual directors, including the composition of the Board and relevant procedures of the meetings.

Corporate governance is the exercise of ethical and effective leadership by the governing body towards the achievement of; ethical leadership; good performance; effective control and legitimacy.

- 2.2 Unless inconsistent with the content, an expression which denotes any one gender includes the other genders.

3. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

- 3.1 The Board subscribes to a unitary board structure with a balance of power between executive and non-executive directors.
- 3.2 Notwithstanding the above, there will at all times be a majority of non-executive directors, the majority of whom must be independent as defined in King IV. When insufficient independent directors exist at any point in time and the Board does not want to increase its size for the sake of compliance only, then the Board must ensure that adequate non-executive directors exist that act independently.

- 3.3 The Chairman of the Board (“Chairman”) will be an independent non-executive director.
- 3.4 The Chairman will be appointed on an annual basis and will be responsible for the effective leadership of the Board as contemplated in King IV. The Chairman, together with the Board, will consider the number of outside chairmanships held by him/her and the Board will ensure a proper succession plan for the position of Chairman.
- 3.5 At a minimum, the chief executive officer and chief financial officer are ex officio members of the Board.
- 3.6 There should be a clear division of responsibilities between the executive responsibility for the running of the Company’s business and the leadership of the Board, such that no one individual has unfettered powers of decision-making.
- 3.7 The Remuneration & Nominations Committee of the Board is mandated with the responsibility of identifying suitable candidates for appointment to the Board. Directors are appointed by the Board based on the recommendation of the Remuneration & Nominations Committee through a formal process. The appointment is subject to shareholders approval at the first annual general meeting of shareholders following such appointment. A letter of appointment outlining responsibilities and compliance aspects will be issued to all directors.
- 3.8 The Board is structured to ensure an appropriate mix and balance of knowledge, skills, experience, diversity and independence for it to effectively discharge its governance role and responsibilities. In identifying and considering potential candidates, the Remuneration & Nominations Committee and Board will, amongst skills, experience, race and age diversity, suitability and the specific requirement to be addressed, take gender diversity into consideration.

To ensure that the Company’s policy on employment equity, particularly gender diversity is aligned with that of the 2013 Codes of Good Practice of the Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Act 53 of 2003, as amended, namely:

- 25 percent exercisable voting rights of black female directors as a percentage of all directors; and
- 25 percent black executive female directors as a percentage of all executive directors.

- 3.9 At least one third of the non-executive directors will retire by rotation on an annual basis.
- 3.10 The independence of independent non-executive directors will be assessed on an annual basis with a specific focus on the independence of independent non-executive directors who have served for more than 9 years and the outcome of such assessment will be reported on in the integrated report.
- 3.11 A succession plan for the governing body's membership to be established, including mentorship and development of current directors where applicable.

4. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

- 4.1 As its primary function, the Board is responsible to serve as the focal point and custodian of corporate governance by:

 - 4.3.12 ensure proper management of the relationship between the Company and all its stakeholders so as to protect and, where possible, enhance the reputation of the Company;
 - 4.3.13 ensure all shareholders are treated equitably and that the interest of the minority shareholders is adequately protected;
 - 4.3.14 ensure the integrity of the Company's annual integrated report and relevant disclosures of King IV;
 - 4.3.15 approve the Company's financial objectives including capital expenditure, treasury, capital and funding proposals;
 - 4.3.16 monitor the performance of the Company against agreed objectives and review the performance of executive management against defined objectives and other applicable performance standards; and
 - 4.3.17 continuously monitor the solvency and liquidity of the Company.
- 4.4 The board will be responsible for appointing the chief executive officer and ensuring a proper process of performance management and succession planning in respect of this position.
- 4.5 The board will be responsible for electing a non-executive director as chairman and ensuring proper succession planning in respect of this position, based on suggestions made by the Remuneration & Nominations Committee.
- 4.6 The board, via the Remuneration & Nominations Committee, will provide input regarding senior management appointments, remuneration and succession plans.
- 4.7 The Board will implement a formal delegation of authority framework which will be reviewed on an annual basis.
- 4.8 The Board will implement a formal governance framework in respect of subsidiary companies and other related entities in the group.

- 4.9 The Board will commence business rescue proceedings as soon as the Company is financially distressed.
- 4.10 The Board will, with the support of the Remuneration & Nominations Committee, adopt remuneration policies that are fair, responsible and aligned with the strategy of the Company while linked to individual performance. A remuneration report will be included in the integrated report and the remuneration philosophy will be submitted to shareholders annually for a non-binding, advisory vote.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES OF INDIVIDUAL DIRECTORS

- 5.1 In fulfilling his responsibility to the Company, a director will at all times:
- 5.1.1 Act in the best interest of the Company, in good faith and with integrity and adhere to all relevant legal standards of conduct, in accordance with section 76 and 77 of the Companies Act and King IV recommendations;
 - 5.1.2 Conduct himself in a professional manner;

- 5.1.10 Actively participate in and contribute to Board deliberations in a constructive and frank manner under the leadership and guidance of the Chairman.
- 5.2 Individual directors will be expected to participate in the Company's induction programme on appointment and attend such professional development programmes as deemed necessary by the Chairman based on the outcome of the annual assessment of the director's performance.
- 5.3 Directors who are not able to attend any meetings of the Board will submit a formal apology, with reasons, to the Chairman or company secretary.
- 5.4 The directors are entitled to have access, at reasonable times, to all relevant Company information and to management. Such access shall be arranged through the Chairman or the chief executive officer.

6. DEVELOPMENT OF DIRECTORS

- 6.1 A formal induction programme will be in place for new directors who will also be provided with a letter of appointment.
- 6.2 Inexperienced directors will be assisted, with the guidance of the Chairman, to participate in mentoring programmes where available.
- 6.3 The need for continuing professional development programmes will be identified as part of the annual assessment of the performance of the directors.
- 6.4 Directors will be provided with regular briefings on changes in risks, laws and the environment but will also be expected to keep abreast of developments in the business environment and markets that may have a material impact on the business.

7. BOARD COMMITTEES

- 7.1 The Board will delegate certain of its functions to well-structured committees but without abdicating its own responsibilities.
- 7.2 Each Board committee as established by the Board will have formal charters to be approved by the Board and annually reviewed.
- 7.3 The committees will be appropriately constituted with due regard to the skills, qualification and experience required by each committee.
- 7.4 The committees will be chaired by an independent non-executive director and the majority of committee members will be independent non-executive directors unless otherwise regulated in the charter of the committee. When insufficient independent directors exist at any point in time and the Board does not want to increase its size for the sake of compliance only, then the Board must ensure that adequate non-executive directors exist that act independently.
- 7.5 As a minimum, the Board will establish an Audit & Risk Committee, a “Remuneration & Nominations Committee” and a “Social & Ethics and Sustainability Committee”.

8. COMPANY SECRETARY

- 8.1 The Board will appoint and remove the company secretary and empower the company secretary to enable him/her to properly fulfil his/her duties.
- 8.2 The Board will ensure that the company secretary has the requisite knowledge, skills and experience to fulfil the function of company secretary.
- 8.3 The company secretary will not be a director of the Company.
- 8.4 The company secretary will, in addition to his/her statutory duties, fulfil the duties of a company secretary as contemplated in King IV.
- 8.5 The board will implement such procedures as are required to ensure the independence of the company secretary.

9. MEETING PROCEDURE

- 9.1 The Board will hold sufficient scheduled meetings to discharge all its duties but subject to a minimum of four meetings per year.
- 9.2 Any Board member may, in consultation with the Chairman, request additional Board meetings to be held as and when deemed appropriate.

- 9.3 The company secretary will be required to facilitate the process of setting the agenda for each meeting as agreed with the Chairman and chief executive officer. Every director will be entitled, in consultation with the Chairman, to add any item to the agenda for a particular Board meeting.
- 9.4 Reasonable notice in writing shall be given to all directors in respect of all Board meetings and processes.
- 9.5 The detailed agenda together with supporting documentation will be circulated prior to the meetings, within a reasonable time, so as to enable the directors to be properly prepared for the meeting.
- 9.6 The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be a majority of directors unless otherwise provided for in the Company's memorandum of incorporation.
- 9.7 From time to time, the non-executive directors of the Board shall meet without any members of the executive management team being present, for the purposes of evaluating the information received from executive management about the Company and to determine whether it is reliable and of the appropriate standard.
- 9.8 Members of senior management and service providers may be invited by the Chairman to attend meetings of the Board but will not be entitled to vote or be counted for quorum purposes.
- 9.9 In the absence of the Chairman at a meeting, the Lead Independent director, if present, will act as Chairman for purposes of the meeting. In the event that the Lead Independent director and Chairman are both absent from a meeting, the directors present will elect one of the directors present to act as Chairman for the purposes of the meeting.
- 9.10 The Board's discussions shall at all times be open and constructive. The Chairman shall seek a consensus in the Board but may, where considered necessary, call for a vote in whatever manner the Chairman, in his sole discretion, deems appropriate.
- 9.11 The minutes of a meeting must be completed as soon as reasonably possible after the meeting and circulated to the Chairman and directors for review. The minutes will be formally approved by the Board at its next scheduled meeting.
- 9.12 The Board will establish an annual work plan to ensure that all relevant matters are covered by the agendas of the meetings planned for the year. The annual work plan will ensure coverage of all matters determined by this Charter.

- 9.13 Board meetings may be conducted via telephone or video conference facilities provided that all concerned can actively participate in the meeting. Directors participating via these facilities will be counted for quorum purposes.

10. BOARD PROCEDURES AND POLICIES

The Board will be entitled to adopt and approve such procedures and policies as it may deem necessary to ensure proper governance in the management of its affairs. As a minimum, the Board will adopt policies and procedures in respect of the following:

10.1 Independent professional advice

The Board shall approve a procedure in terms of which any director may consult an independent expert when necessary and within his/her duties, at the expense of the Company.

10.2 Conflicts of interest

The Board shall adopt a formal Code of Conduct which should include conflicts of interest in terms of which conflicts are defined and appropriate procedures for dealing with conflicts are prescribed.

Directors will disclose any conflict of interest in respect of matters on the agenda at the beginning of a meeting and if any matter is to be discussed, the conflicted directors shall not receive sensitive information; be present at the meeting; and participate in any decision of the matter.

10.3 Trading in Company equities

The Board shall adopt and approve a formal procedure to regulate the trading by directors and senior management in the Company's equities.

10.4 Dissemination of Company information

The Board shall approve a policy in respect of the dissemination of Company information in order to regulate the circulation of price sensitive information and to ensure equal treatment of all shareholders.

11. BOARD AND DIRECTOR EVALUATION

- 11.1 An annual assessment of the performance of the Board, Chairman, individual directors and Board committees will be done.

- 11.2 An overview of the evaluation process, results and action plans will be disclosed in the integrated report.

- 11.3 The nomination for the re-appointment of a director will only occur after the evaluation of the performance and attendance of the director.

12. INDEMNIFICATION AND DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS INSURANCE

Directors and Officers Insurance premiums will be paid by the Company for cover in the event that Directors and Officers are exposed to certain wrongful acts such as error, misleading statements, omission, neglect or breach of duty, in the course of discharging directors' duties within the necessary authority.

13. NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS' FEES

- 13.1 Non-executive director's fees ("Directors Fees") will be approved by shareholders on an annual basis on recommendation by the Board with the input and assistance of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee.
- 13.2 Directors' Fees will comprise a combined base fee and meeting attendance fee. The Directors Fees will not be split as these directors normally attend all Board and Board committee meetings and their responsibilities extend beyond meeting attendance.
- 13.3 Full disclosure of all fees paid to directors for their services as directors as well as remuneration requirements will be made in the annual integrated report in terms of the requirements of the Companies Act, JSE Limited and King IV.
- 13.4 Non-executive directors should, as a general rule, not provide any professional or business services of an ongoing nature to the Company. The Company may, for the purpose of a special assignment, engage the services of a non-executive director (specific field of expertise) but the terms of the engagement must be competitive, clearly recorded and all legal requirements with regards to disclosure must be complied with. A daily fee will be paid for ad hoc advisory services.

14. REVIEW AND COMPLIANCE OF BOARD CHARTER

The Board shall be required on an annual basis, to confirm on whether it has fulfilled its responsibilities in accordance with this Charter.

The charter shall be reviewed on an annual basis by the Board.
